SONS OF HARVARD WIN THREE RACES

60,000 Persons Witness Thrilling Contests on the Thames.

BLUE NO MATCH FOR CRIMSON

Time in Varsity Eight-Oared Race Best Since 1903.

New London, Conn., June 30.—The sun could not shine on the waters of the Thames this evening with a deeper crimson than they had been dyed by the victorious of three Harvard crews. On the broad four mile stretch between this city and Gales Ferry Harvard met Yale to-day in their 4th annual rowing regatta. Five lengths was Harvard's margin of success in the Varsity eight oared race, three lengths in the Freshman eight, and four lengths in the Varsity four. The freshmen four race won by Yale Wednesday evening was the one sweet drop in Yale's bitter cup of defeat.

It is estimated that sixty thousand persons saw the final race, and that forty thousand of them were from out of town. The multitude was as thronging as the waters of the Thames.

Here is the time of the races: Varsity eight—Harvard, 20:14.1; Yale, 21:4. Varsity four—Harvard, 12:00.1; Yale, 12:18. Freshman eight—Harvard, 11:54.1; Yale, 12:02.

The Varsity four and Freshman eight oared race, at two miles, were rowed up stream this morning. The Varsity eight oared race was rowed down stream this afternoon.

Men's Water Conditions.
A quartering northwest breeze that roughened the river and blew in the faces of the crews caused a low time in the early events, but the main race of the day was rowed on water ideally smooth, and the time was the fastest in any down-stream race on the Thames since 1903, when a victorious Yale crew covered the four miles in 20 minutes 14.5 seconds.

Yale holds the record for the course, 20:10. The victory of the Crimson in the big varsity race was unexpected, although Yale, for the past ten days had been rated rather more dangerous than it proved.

The Elis held on to the Crimson up to the half-mile mark. Then the superior physical power in the Cambridge boat settled the contest. Harvard's eight oared crew, however, was much heavier than Yale's, and one inch taller.

The big race was another demonstration of the cleverness of Jim Wray, the Harvard coach, in turning out fast crews composed of big men. The crew which represented Yale, and which averaged 171 5-8 pounds. But Wray had a crew which averaged 179 pounds to the man.

Yale Sets Fast Pace.
Yale tried to kill off Harvard to-day by setting a fast pace, and pulled the highest stroke that any Yale crew has ever rowed in years. Starting at thirty-nine strokes to the minute, Yale only dropped to thirty-six at the half-mile. Soon after the half-mile flag had been passed, Yale let her stroke down to thirty-four to the minute, which was held until near the finish, with two exceptions. At the two-mile mark, Yale spurted to thirty-six, and from the two and three-quarter mile to the three and a quarter mile point, where he made his last and best effort, Yale raised his stroke again to thirty-six, and gave the best exhibition of rowing that Yale put forth in the entire regatta.

Harvard started at thirty-seven per minute, dropped to thirty-four at the half-mile, then raised her stroke one point at the one-mile mark, and after her only substantial lead of the race. From the mile flag, until the two and a half mile flag, Harvard held her stroke at thirty-four, and at a half mile she raised it one point, but soon dropped to thirty-four again, which rate she held until the three and a half mile mark, when she raised her stroke to thirty-five, and Stroke Cutter lifted the pace gradually until he was rowing thirty-seven to the minute, when he crossed the finish line.

From these figures it will be seen that Harvard really rowed a lower stroke on the average than Yale. The very opposite has been true of former Harvard races.

Harvard had a trifle better of the first but soon was overtaken and pulled the Blue shell slightly to the front, and at the half mile Yale led by from twelve to fourteen feet, and at the mile by twenty feet. Harvard's spurt, however, soon cut down this lead, and at the mile and a half the crews were again neck and neck. Harvard's more powerful stroke began to gradually force her shell ahead. At the two mile mark the Crimson was leading by a third of a length, at the two and a half mile by a half a length, and at the three mile flag there was a half a length between the crews. Over the last mile Harvard literally rowed away from Yale and added more than four lengths more to her lead. Yale's rowing at no time was so finished as that of Harvard's.

Prominent Persons Present.
Among those who were present at the race were Robert Bacon, United States Ambassador to France, whose son, E. C. Bacon, pulled No. 5 in the Freshman eight; Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh and Secretary of the Navy George Von L. Meyer, who had a son in the winning Harvard Freshman eight.

Roger Cutler, 1911, of Brookline, Mass., stroke in to-day's Varsity, was elected captain of the Harvard crew for next year.

CHAMPIONS RISE LEAGUE PENDANT

Pittsburg Nationals Unfurl Flag for First Time This Season.

CINCINNATI IS DEFEATED

Wagner Makes Four Clean Singles at Four Times at Bat.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 30.—Pittsburg displayed for the first time to-day the great black and gold flag, won in the world's championship series with Detroit Americans last fall, and following the flag-raising ceremonies, the team went to work and won in the first inning a game from Cincinnati. The first five men at bat each scored a run, three hits being helped by Rowan's wildness, and McMillan's wild throw. The final score was 8 to 3.

The pennant raising was held up until to-day because this date marked the anniversary of the opening of Forbes Field, the new baseball park. August Hermann, chairman of the National Baseball Commission; President Ban B. Johnson, of the American League, and Thomas J. Lynch, of the National League, led the small party of baseball leaders and public officials and Cincinnati and Pittsburg players to the outfield, where the flag was raised by Captain Fred Clarke. A band played and nearly 10,000 fans, a third of whom were women, cheered.

The Cincinnati players in blue, the Pittsburgers in white, and the flag in brilliant red, orange and blue, a brilliant parade across the green sward. Wagner, making four clean singles in the four times he faced the ball, was a favorite star of the game which followed. The score:

DOUBLE HEADER AT BOSTON
Boston, Mass., June 30.—Philadelphia won the first game, 4 to 1, to-day, but was shut out, 4 to 0, in the second. Shean's home run saved Boston from being whitewashed in the opening contest. McQuillan pitched great ball.

Ferguson allowed only four hits in the second game, while Shean was batted out of the box. The score:

NEW PITCHER WINS GAME FOR TARS

Fletcher Shows Up Well and Trainers Lose by 5 to 3 Score.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Norfolk, Va., June 30.—The Tars defeated the Trainers this afternoon in a rather slow and tiresome game, brightened only here and there by brilliant fielding or momentary batting rallies, by the score of 5 to 3.

Fletcher, a new pitcher, and dubbed "Jim Jinx" by the crowd because of his huge size, showed up well in the box, holding the Trainers to four hits, and was assisted in winning by sharp and lucky fielding.

Hannifan did not seem to be in his usual shape, was a little bit wild and ineffective in the pitcher's box. The batting of McFarland, Fletcher and Munson and a couple of fast doubles by the Tars were the features.

Portsmouth broke a tie in the first inning. With one out, Toner drew a free pass and on a wild throw of Fletcher's to first to catch him napping, sent in the pinch runner, who advanced by Murdoch's sacrifice. Chandler singled to left, and both men in front of him scored. Jackson drew

The Tars went the Trainers three better in their half of the first, making four runs. Busch opened with a free pass, Bonner singled, and both were advanced by Murdoch's sacrifice. Chandler singled to left, and both men in front of him scored. Jackson drew

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

Although there has been a sense of security in the minds of the fans in regard to Portsmouth for nearly a week, it seems that the end is not yet. Yesterday the game scheduled to be played in Portsmouth was played in Norfolk, and a sheriff was reported as watching the entrance gates. It has been with Richmond he has tapped them out to the startling mark of 161.

Bigbie also has a rather good fielding record, and which would be beside the mark if he did not have a good record. It is as popular with the fans as any man on the team. Unless Schultz shows up in better form than he did yesterday, the Richmond management would do well to think again before trying a can to Bigbie.

Owner Bradley got into communication with Hank Ramsey, of Altoona, yesterday, and purchased Frank Burke, an outfielder, for the Colts. Burke was started away from Altoona yesterday, and will probably report to the club. He will be given a tryout, and if he makes good will probably stay.

Wallace is the most unfortunate of them all. A sprained ankle or a broken finger, or even an attack of malaria, is not so bad as this. He has been expected, Wallace, however, has gone the limit. He has gone and got a case of shingles.

What, you, or how the shingles are, nobody knows, but the old medicine men say that if the shingles go all the way around the body it means certain death. Wallace has a band of them only one-third of the way around, and his recovery is hoped for. He will not be in the game for at least a week. Such are shingles.

THE BIG FIGHT AT RENO.

John L. Sullivan, ex-heavyweight champion of the world, the most popular man who ever wore a mitt, and Mike Murphy, the prince of trainers, will report for The Times-Dispatch the great Fourth-of-July fight at Reno.

The Times-Dispatch will print the Associated Press reports as well as other special narratives of the greatest of ring battles, but the most interesting features of the great fight will be the Sullivan and Murphy stories.

Readers of The Times-Dispatch will see the battle through the eyes of experts. "John L." will tell the story as he always fought—straight, fair and without frills.

"CY" YOUNG FACED BY ONLY 28 MEN

Cleveland's Star Pitcher Wins His 499th Big League Victory.

ST. LOUIS MAKES TWO HITS

Cleveland, Ohio, June 30.—Cleveland shut out St. Louis, 5 to 0, to-day. It was "Cy" Young's 499th big league victory, and he pitched a remarkable game, allowing only twenty-eight men to go to bat. St. Louis had only one man left on base, that being a result of a base on balls in the ninth. The score:
